Description Increasing the amount of the credits under the economic development tax credit program

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Under current law, the Department of Commerce (Commerce) may allocate tax credits to certain businesses under the Economic Development Tax Credit program. The Economic Development Tax Credit consolidated the Development Zone, Airport Development Zone, Agricultural Development Zone, Technology Zone, and Enterprise Development Zone credits into a single Economic Development Credit. The total amount of credits allocated under the Economic Development Credit may not exceed the sum of the tax credits remaining under the zone-based credits it replaced. The bill increases the total amount of credits that Commerce may allocate under the economic development tax credit program by $25 million.

Fiscal Effect

As of December, 2010, there was approximately $75 million remaining in the Economic Development Tax Credit from the amount originally allocated to it from the programs it replaced. Additionally, Commerce has been awarding an average of $1.7 million per month in Economic Development Credits. Assuming Commerce continues to award Economic Development Tax Credits at the rate of $1.7 million per month, the allocation of $75 million would last approximately 44 months. Based on this, Commerce would begin using the additional $25 million allocated under this bill in approximately August 2014. Therefore, the bill would first affect revenue in fiscal year 2015. As such, the bill would have no fiscal effect in the 2011-13 biennium.
